

they will See and Understand

ISAIAH 52:15; ROMANS 15:21

Dear Loved Ones,

I hope this finds you well, loving and serving our Savior more. Fall is here, and I am very excited to see the colors change here in Minnesota. Many things are changing these days. My life has taken a new direction in the past several months, and I am grateful for the Lord's leading, faithfulness, and provision. These are some of the changes:

Getting Married!

After seven months of courting, praying, and seeking the Lord's will, Josh asked me to marry him and I said, "Yes!" We hope to be married this year!

Same Call, New Direction

Josh and I had a wonderful time at the Summer Institute of Linguistics at the University of North Dakota where I received training in Literacy, and he began training in Linguistics. We hope to work overseas, but we are thrilled to serve in Minneapolis as he finishes his degree in Business from Bethel University. I am excited to tell you that I am now serving full-time with communications in the home office of World Mission Prayer League (WMPL).

World Mission Prayer League

It is such a privilege to serve in the organization with which my parents, grandparents, and extended family have served and continue to serve!

WMPL (pronounced 'wimple') is a prayer and faith based ministry with thousands of praying members. If you are not a member of our praying fellowship, I encourage you to consider joining. For details please see WMPL's website www.WMPL.org.

This is also my home address:

Fellow Workers

Since resigning from Lutheran Bible Translators, many of you have asked how you can continue to support me. I am so pleased to give you the opportunity of partnering with me and WMPL in asking for the nations (Psalm 2:8) and shining the light of the Son among the them. Thank you for following, supporting, and partnering with me in my desire to testify to the Gospel of God's grace!

Please pray for me as I take this next step and as I trust the Lord for His provision and leading. To materially support my ministry with WMPL, send your tax deductible contributions to the address below. Make checks payable to WMPL and designate Lee Support. Thank you so much!
